

MCG group Export Control Global Policy

1. We shall recognize, confirm, and study that there are various risks involved in transactions, and shall not engage in transactions that threaten the maintenance of international peace and security.
2. We shall comply with and implement laws, regulations, agreements, etc. that is applied to the countries/regions where we are located, where we do business, and those outside of those countries/regions, to facilitate international transactions.
3. We shall establish structures and procedures to ensure the reliable execution of our business and thoroughly comply with export-related laws and regulations.

Department in charge

PSQA Division, Supply Chain, Mitsubishi Chemical Group Corporation

History of Rules

Established on September 1, 2015

Revised on January 26, 2023

Revised on April 19, 2024

Revised on December 26, 2024